How Much Would You Pay For This Bottle Of Water?

Teleqan Well Project

Clean water for the Telegans

You would never drink dirty water; however, clean water is not a choice in many parts of Africa. One community in particular, of about 5,000 Telegans in West Africa, relies on one deep well and two seasonal ponds. Their consumption of unsafe water leads to illnesses and death especially among the children. Additional sources of safe water are desperately needed. Even one well can significantly improve their quality of life.

“Sons of Isaac”

Telegan means “Sons of Isaac,” pointing to their Jewish origin. During the 10th century, this ethnically Jewish group migrated to the West African Sahel. Around the 12th century, they were conquered by the Songhai Empire and forcibly converted to Islam. Still, they firmly held on to their name, language, and culture. Now numbering about 100,000, the Telegan are a nomadic group that has wandered Northwest Africa for 1,000 years.

God is calling back his people

In the 1990s, Daoud became the first Telegan Christian. Now a Bible translator, he desires to reach the Telegan with the Word of God in their native language and the message of salvation in Jesus. His testing of translations from Genesis has yielded positive responses from the people.

After a thousand years, the Telegans are being reintroduced to their Jewish roots and hearing their history in their own language as chronicled in the Bible. We hope and pray that this journey back to their roots will eventually lead them to the story of a Messiah who can guarantee eternal life and a relationship with God based on grace.

Springs of Living Water

Daoud asked his grandmother, “When you walk, you get thirsty. Then you meet some of your people who are also thirsty. Then you find water! What would you do?”

She said, “I would drink and then go back and tell the others there is water to drink!”

Daoud said, “That is what I am doing now. I have the living water of Jesus. No prophet can compare to Jesus because He had no sin but gave His life for sinners. He is the living water. I am telling you because you are thirsty and need this living water to drink before you die. So please drink. You will not lose anything but you will gain eternal life.”

She received the message and did not reject what he said. The seed has been planted

$15,000 = One Well = One Hope

Daoud aims to help his people with the installation of a well. Mountain Bible Church (MBC) seeks to help him reach this goal.

Being a priority need, the well will have great impact on the Telegan. It will be a tangible manifestation of the love of God and His people. The well will provide a connection, an open door. It will help Daoud reach his people.

You can be a part of this plan! MBC is already raising $3,000. If 100 individuals contribute $10 every month for one year, we would raise an additional $12,000 and meet the goal! Will you commit to set aside a small sum of money for one year to help install a well for the Telegan?

Prayer warriors for the Telegan

Much prayer is needed in seeing the Telegan come to meet their promised Messiah. Will you commit to regularly praying for them? Would you be part of the Telegan Prayer Team? As a prayer team member, you will receive regular updates on the outreach to this people through email.

Take part in fulfillment of God’s promise to His people!

“The time is coming,” declares the LORD, “when I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel and with the house of Judah... This is the covenant I will make with the house of Israel after that time,” declares the LORD. “I will put my law in their minds and write it on their hearts. I will be their God, and they will be my people. No longer will a man teach his neighbor, or a man his brother, saying, ‘Know the LORD,’ because they will all know me, from the least of them to the greatest,” declares the LORD. “For I will forgive their wickedness and will remember their sins no more.” (Jeremiah 31:34).
